RAINFALL

Those nights as a child when you would poke at the raindrops on the other side of those bedroom windows... they're still there in your memories. In this game, click on the raindrops that fall onto your window to collect knick-knacks on your windowsill

A board game where players must prevent their landfill from overflowing using cards that represent real world problems and solutions to trash/recycling management. This game was made with an emphasis on sustainability using largely natural and recyclable materials. It is intended to help teach people how their local community handles garbage.

UNUSUAL CIRCUMSTANCES

Unusual Circumstances is an arcade-style space combat game with a twist... you can only attack your enemies by picking up objects and throwing them at them! Survive as long as you can and see how long you can last

2

TOO MUCH TRASH

Too Much Trash is a two-player co-op platforming adventure. Take control of Carl Trashmann and Theo Recyclr and make it to the end before your fuel runs dry! Punch trash guys, avoid obstacles, and throw each other to progress through each level.

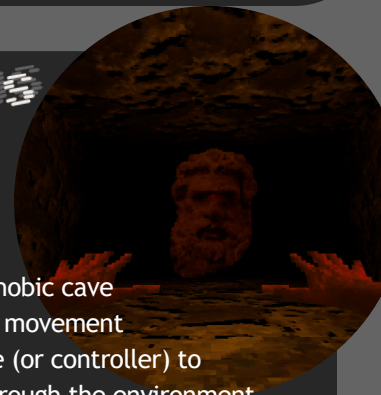

5

BANANA SIMULATOR

Banana Simulator is a story-driven comedic experience where you play through the various genres of games that have existed throughout video game history! Platformer? Check. RPG? Check. Visual Novel? Double check. The possibilities are endless!

3

POLYPHEMUS

Crawl through a claustrophobic cave using a unique, immersive movement mechanic. Use your mouse (or controller) to physically drag yourself through the environment. Explore twisting caverns, ancient ruins, and cramped chambers while avoiding the cyclops, Polyphemus, and the other creatures in the darkness

6

SPINNING OVER IT

Welcome to Spinning Over It! In this Foddy-like vertical scroller, wield your double-edged mace to propel yourself to the top! Made during the Fall 2024 Game Dev Club Game Jam with the theme "Two is Better Than One."
